

THANKSGIVING LITANY 2008

In a time of financial insecurity,
we are grateful because we have the security of our faith.

In a time of world turmoil,
we are grateful that we have chosen the ways of peace.

In a time of grave injustice,
we are grateful that we been called to promote justice.

In a time of despair,
we are grateful that we know the virtue of hope.

In a time of uncertainty when the fire of hate and fear is fueled again, we are grateful to hold on to charity.

May this time become a Kairos moment,
A critical moment when we all turn towards
A deeper understanding of solidarity and security.

May all our sisters and brothers
Receive your gifts
And may we all share
The abundance of your Love.

Jane Deren, Ph.D,
2008